

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

1. Submitting an article to Cuadernos de Economía implies the authors' commitment, to not submit the same article simultaneously to other publications, either partially or completely.
2. Work must be sent in a Latex or text file (Word for Windows (.doc) or Rich Text Format (.RTF) and must comply with the following requirements: material shall have no more than 10,000 words including notes and bibliographic references; the text shall be written in single space, Garamond font size 13, on letter-sized pages having 3 cm margins.
3. Data concerning the authors must be indicated in footnotes by an asterisk: author's names, profession or job, level of studies, actual post held, place of work and (obligatorily) their e-mails and their address.
4. An analytical abstract in written in Spanish and English must be included, containing a maximum of 100 words. The summary must be clear and provide sufficient information for the readers to be able to easily identify the article's subject.
5. Four or five key words must be given in Spanish and English and four or five classification codes using JEL nomenclature which can be consulted at the following web site: http://www.aeaweb.org/journal/jel_class_system.php.
6. Tables, graphs, plots and/or maps must be legible, having very clearly defined conventions; source information must be cited in the lower part of them and the files must be sent in the software used for drawing them (spreadsheet for tables, plots and graphs, and image for figures or maps). The page on which they must be inserted or whether they should be included as appendices must be clearly indicated. If material which is protected by copyright is to be used, then the authors are solely responsible for obtaining written authorization from those who hold the rights.
8. The headings for each section must be written in bold, aligned to the left and in sustained capitals. Second level titles must be written in bold, aligned to the left and combine capital and small case letters. Third level titles must be written in italics, aligned to the left and combine capital and small case letters.

9. The equations should be consecutively numbered and within parentheses: (1), (2) ... This numbering must be aligned to the right.

10. Mathematical symbols must be very clear and legible. Subscripts and superscripts must be correctly located.

11. If the proposed document should include textual citation, then the following indications should be followed: if the quotation has five lines or less then it must be preceded by a colon and be placed within inverted commas; if the quotation runs for more than five lines then it must be placed in a separate paragraph, 1 centimeters from the left-hand edge of the page, in Garamond font size 12 and aligned to the right.

12. The footnotes are intended to be exclusively explanatory; they must not include bibliographic references.

13. To use an acronym or an abbreviation, please indicate its complete equivalence and then, within brackets, the term that will be used for the rest of the document.

14. Bibliographic references must retain the author-date style, inserted within the text (López, 1998). When a reference is given textually then the number of the page from which it was taken must be given after the date, separated by a comma (López, 1998, p. 52), if it includes several pages (López, 1998, p. 52-53) and in the case of several authors (López et al., 1998).

15. The wording, mentions in the text, either textual or paraphrase, and bibliographic references must strictly follow the APA style. The bibliography must list only the sources cited in the work; therefore, the section is entitled References and must strictly follow The American Psychological Association (APA) style and <http://www.apastyle.org/learn/faqs/index.aspx> and <http://flash1r.apa.org/apastyle/basics/index.htm>.

16. The author grants the publishing rights to the School of Economics of the Faculty of Economic Sciences of the National University of Colombia. Cuadernos de Economía reserves the right to publish printed, electronic and of any other kind, in all languages.
